

COMMISSION NOTICE 3/2007

NOTICE REGARDING PUBLICATION OF DRAFT DETERMINATION ON THE MAXIMUM LEVEL OF AIRPORT CHARGES AT DUBLIN AIRPORT

The Commission for Aviation Regulation is currently engaged in an interim review of charges at Dublin Airport as announced last December (in Commission Paper CP9/2006). Publication of the draft determination resulting from the interim review was envisaged for April 2007.

Certain pieces of work which the Commission will publish with the draft determination are not now envisaged to be completed by the end of April. Accordingly, the Commission announces today (26 April 2007) that it has decided to take a short amount of additional time prior to the publication of the draft determination.

The Commission will continue to work with the industry and the Commission's advisors to complete the work needed to publish the draft determination in a timely manner.

In due course, once the timetable is clarified, a further announcement will be made.

The publication of the draft Determination and Explanatory Memorandum will commence the statutory consultation period required by law. At the end of the consultation period and following the consideration of any representations received, the Commission will make its final determination and report.
