

Air Carrier Operating Licence Privacy Notice

General Statement

This Privacy Notice relates to the Irish Aviation Authority (IAA) privacy practices in connection with our use of your personal data in relation to issuing an Air Carrier Operating Licence. The IAA is the Controller of all personal data that is collected as a part of Air Carrier Operating Licence application forms.

The IAA is fully committed to processing all personal data in line with data protection laws and principles. This privacy statement is provided to you in line with our obligation under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and Data Protection Act 2018.

Being transparent about how we process your personal data is important to us. Therefore, through this privacy notice we aim to keep you informed about data processing activities carried out by us specific to airline licensing and monitoring.

Personal Data Collection

We collect and process personal data in relation to owners, directors, employees, shareholders and professional advisors of airlines. The personal data collected includes:

- a. Name and contact details (telephone number and email address)
- b. Curriculum vitae and passports
- c. Shareholding details
- d. Documents relating to good reputation

Purpose of Data Processing

We process your personal data to:

- a. Examine and issue an air carrier operating licence
- b. To communicate with relevant stakeholders
- c. To monitor compliance with conditions of licence
- d. To perform all other ancillary activities in relation to airline licensing and monitoring

Lawful Basis for Processing

The IAA is responsible for licensing Irish airlines in accordance with Regulation (EC) No 1008/2008. Therefore, the IAA processes your personal data for exercising the official authority vested in it.

Automated Decision-Making

The data subjects will not be subject to automated decision making by the IAA.

Data Sharing

We will potentially share your personal data with third parties such as Comptroller and Auditor General, internal auditors, European Commission and professional advisors hired by us.

Data Security

We have implemented appropriate technical and organizational measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorized way, altered or accidentally disclosed. These measures include, but are not limited to, policies and procedures, access controls and password protection. The IAA staffs and the third parties with whom the data is shared have a legal duty to keep information about you confidential and safe whether it is held in paper or electronic format.

Data Retention

We will retain your personal data in line with our Data Retention and Destruction Schedule. After expiry of the retention period, we will securely destroy your personal data.

Data Subject Rights

As a data subject you have the following rights under the GDPR:

- a. Right to access your personal data
- b. Right to have any incorrect personal data rectified
- c. Right to have your personal data erased (where appropriate)
- d. Right to object or restrict processing of your personal data (where appropriate)

- e. Right to request for transfer your data to another organisation
