Re: REVIEW OF TRAVEL TRADE LEGISLATION

Dear Mr.O'Connor,

I would like to submit the following suggestions regarding the Review of Travel Trade Legislation:

1. The distinction should be made between sole trading/family licenced business and incorporated companies.
2. Provision should be made for the orderly hand-over of business to a family member, in the event of the named licensee's incapacitation or death. This should allow on-going business to be transacted in a seamless fashion, without any complications.
3. In the event of a necessary claim by a client against the bond, the invoices being furnished by the travel agent should be gross invoices (i.e. including commissions earned by the travel agent)
3. In the event of an airline collapse, there is the question of money in the pipeline and money already accounted for in the IATA/BSP system.

Yours sincerely,

Hilary L.Murphy
