DUBLIN AIRPORT (EIDW)*CONSTRUCTION AND FINAL COMMISSIONING OF THE NEW NORTH RUNWAY

This Supplement replaces SUP 003/2021.

The sections of the new North Runway and associated taxiway infrastructure, as highlighted in grey on the drawing in the appendix, are not available for flight operations, and will not be available until formally promulgated and introduced into service.

Construction and final commissioning of the new North Runway, to be designated RWY10L/28R, is in progress at Dublin Airport.

The location of the runway and indicative layout of the associated taxiways are shown in the appendix to this supplement. The new infrastructure highlighted on the drawing currently resides within the boundary of the aerodrome but remains under the control of DAA operations in accordance with local procedures.

Further information regarding the operational implications of the project will be promulgated as the work progresses, by AIP Supplement, NOTAM, and AIP amendment.
