Dail Question No: 299

To ask the Minister for Transport if all persons that are recruited to work in his Department and all the related agencies of his Department are fully vetted before they are employed by his Department and or said agencies.

Deputy Kelly,

The Irish Aviation Authority conducts garda vetting procedures for required roles within the Authority for security clearance, or other deemed purposes. Garda vetting is performed either during the onboarding process or throughout the employment life cycle as it pertains to role requirements.

Kind regards
